

EXHIBIT 20

Exhibit 20

*Mark I. Sokolow, et al. v. Palestine Liberation Organization, et al.Offset in Potential Gaza Tax Increases Due to Employees Not Working

Civilian PA Employees Not Working	[1]	7,894
Security PA Employees Not Working	[2]	35,000
Total PA Employees Not Working in Gaza	[3]	42,894
Gaza Labor Force	[4]	454,900
Gaza Unemployment Rate	[5]	43%
Gaza Employed	[6]	260,203
Total PA Employees as % of Total Gaza Employed	[7]	16%
Potential Tax Revenue From Gaza (USD, millions)	[8]	$350
Offset for Gaza Employees Not Working	[9]	$57.7

Sources and Notes:

[1] Assumes 26,314 permanent civilian PA employees in Gaza (Source: United Nations Development Programme, Karim Nashashibi, “Palestinian Public Finance Under Crisis Management: Restoring Fiscal Sustainability”, March 31, 2015, p. 46), 30% of whom are reportedly not working (See Exhibit 15)

[2] Assumes 35,000 PA security personnel permanent in Gaza (Source: United Nations Development Programme, Karim Nashashibi, “Palestinian Public Finance Under Crisis Management: Restoring Fiscal Sustainability”, March 31, 2015, p. 46), all of whom are reportedly not working.

[3] = [1] + [2]

[4] Labor force in Gaza in the 4th quarter of 2014 (Source: Palestinian Central Bureau of Statistics, February 12, 2015 press release)

[5] Unemployment rate in Gaza in the 4th quarter of 2014 (Source: Palestinian Central Bureau of Statistics, February 12, 2015 press release)

[6] = (1 - [5]) × [4]

[7] = [3] ÷ [6]

[8] See Exhibit 16

[9] = [8] × [7]